Voice vote, all ayes. Motion carried.

Alderman Demes questioned a bill in regards to LaSalle Police, Body and Fender. There were a couple police vehicles that were brought in recently for damage repair and there will be insurance reimbursements for that bill.

Aldermen Demes also wanted to acknowledge the police department for alternating throughout the city to use different repair shops for vehicle repairs.

Aldermen Lavieri wanted to acknowledge the Water Department for the decrease in their overtime from last month.

The Finance Director Duncan mentioned that the June 7 budget and appropriations minutes will be posted to the public and will be approved at the next meeting in two weeks.

Chairman Ptak expressed his concern with the location of the mural tiles that will be approved during the City Council meeting. The committee agreed that it would be wise to state some conditions to Christie Pasieka once she has finalized the location of the mural.

There were no more questions or comments from the public.

Chairman Ptak adjourned the meeting at 6:14 p.m.
